DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to applicants Amendment after non-final rejection received on 04/07/2008.
2. Applicants' arguments with respect to the claims rejections under 35 USC § 102 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejections have been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-19 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1 and 11, 2 and 8-10, 3-7, 12-17, and 18 and 19 are drawn to three methods for evaluating the security of a cryptographic device to recover useful information about a key, a system for evaluating the security of cryptographic hardware, and a method for analyzing externally measurable characteristics of a cryptographic device, respectively. The closest prior art, Kocher, "Timing Attacks on Implementations of Diffie-Hellman, RSA, and Other Systems," XP 000626590, dated 08/18/96, discloses similar methods and system. Kocher describes that, during the processing of each cryptographic operation, a plurality of measurements of an attribute related to the operation of a cryptographic device are recorded and statistically combining the recorded measurements (see § 6 Experimental Results, pages 107-109; figures 1 and 2; measurements of modular multiplication times and modular exponentiation times). However, the above Kocher disclosure neither teaches nor suggests that a connected cryptographic device to an analog-to-digital converter configured to measure an attribute related to operation of said device, sending a plurality of command sequences to the device to cause the device to perform a cryptographic operation to process data using a key and determining whether information about the key is leaking from the device. These distinct steps explicitly incorporated into independent claims 1, 2, 3, 12, and 18 render claims 1 and 11, 2 and 8-10, 3-7, 12-17 and 18 and 19, respectively, allowable.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
